Tina 6.10 pm

Anapela Polataivao (Our Flag Means Death) leads this Aotearoa heartwarmer as Samoan teacher Mareta Percival. Struggling after the death of her daughter in the Christchurch earthquakes, Mareta reluctantly takes on a role as a substitute teacher at an elite private school and is surprised to find children in desperate need of guidance, inspiration, and love. Rated M

The Amateur 6.30 pm

Oscar winner Rami Malek leads this revenge action film as a CIA cryptographer who discovers that terrorists were behind his fiancée's death. Receiving special training, he plots his path to take them all down. To do so, he must blackmail those within the CIA carrying out dodgy secret missions of their own. Rated M

The Penguin Lessons 6.10 pm

Steve Coogan and a very good penguin star in this British heart-warmer. The film's based on the true story of a disillusioned Englishman who went to work in a school in Argentina in 1976. Expecting an easy ride, he discovered instead a complicated and divided nation – and a class of practically unteachable young boys. When he finds a small penguin washed up on an oil-slicked beach, his life is turned upside down – and the penguin becomes not only a valued friend, but also a teacher of life's most important lessons, for Tom, the boys and many others.
